

I strongly support the allocation of 5.250-5.400 MHz to the Amateur Radio service on a domestic, secondary basis to fill the propagation gap between 80 and 40 meters, especially for emergency communications during disasters.